KITCHENS & WARDROBES

In the world of contemporary interiors, boffis name is synonymous with innovation and excellence in kitchens and bathrooms. In 2010 the company turned its attention and innovative approach on the wardrobe sector as well.

SHELVING, DOORS & PARTITIONS

Established in 2012 in Copenhagen by Danish industrial designer Mikal Harsen and Architect Adam Hall, MA/U Studio specializes in the creation of innovative furniture and shelving systems for the home, work and hospitality environment.

ADL is a Made in Italy brand designing complex systems to connect and partition interior spaces.

LIGHTING

Founded in 2005 by Davide Diamantini and based in Fossombrone in the heart of the Marche region, Karman specializes in eclectic lighting solutions with a distinctive, unconventional style influenced by the decorative arts.

INDOOR & OUTDOOR FURNITURE

Specializing in rugs and seating furniture for indoor and outdoor environments, the company is today a reference point for textile innovation.

Founded by Jwana Hamdan, a young Italian entrepreneur of Lebanese origins, the homonymous brand proposes itself as the first outdoor design brand where Italian design know-how meets a cosmopolitan cultural heritage of Middle Eastern inspiration.

Expormim is a company with great tradition in the production of furniture. With more than 50 years of experience, the company has consolidated in the market thanks to the ongoing process of modernization. Expormim is present in more than 40 countries around the world.

In 1950s, Fernando and Maddalena De Padova begin their furniture business activities in Milan. In April of 2015, the The union of De Padova and collaborate on an international joint distribution program, with their shared passion and Italian heritage, making the companies leaders in contemporary furniture design.

Faithful to its decision to reinstate the special role of metal in design and experimentation, De Castelli infuses artisan ideas and workmanship into industrial processes, leading to entirely original results.

BATHROOMS & SURFACES

In the world of contemporary interiors, boffis name is synonymous with innovation and excellence in kitchens and bathrooms. In 2010 the company turned its attention and innovative approach on the wardrobe sector as well.

Aboutwater is a partnership between two leading companies:Boffi and Fantini. the partnership is based on the concept of creating a new collection of taps with a modern and elegant design, conceptually excellent with flawless production.

Fantini is a typical example of an Italian design factory, a family business established in 1947 by brothers Giovanni and Ersilio Fantini, a place with immense creative intensity that manages to combine great hand-crafting skill with industrial technology and processes.

Ritmonio has operated since 1947, specializing in the valves sector for heating and air conditioning components, production of brass parts, copper and brazing components. In 1999 the Bath-Kitchen Division was born to dedicate his production of taps and design for broom and kitchen areas. stone materials.

The Vaselli brand is present in most of the international markets while remaining closely tied to its territory of Rapolano Terme, the production district of the province of Siena, Tuscany. This area is famous for the presence of limestone waters that, over time, has led to an immense stone heritage.

Faithful to its decision to reinstate the special role of metal in design and experimentation, De Castelli infuses artisan ideas and workmanship into industrial processes, leading to entirely original results.

Omvivo has been a pioneer in contemporary bathroom product design and manufacturing for over 30 years, Omvivo remains at the forefront of the Australian and international bathroom market. The Omvivo collection incorporates pieces that challenge and inspire. Omvivo's philosophy, flexibility and capacity to manufacture cutting edge products encourages them to continually broaden their scope of works and become more ambitious in their design.

LITHEA "sensitive forms of stone" is a brand of interior design made in Italy was founded in 2008 by Patrizia Furnari, in collaboration with MGM FURNARI historic Italian company with half a century of experience in the processing of stone materials.

Since 1994 PerformaDesign have been creating design objects, working side by side with the best brands in the field : a long, behind-the-scenes journey that has trained them in attention to detail and in the search for excellence in materials and workmanship.

Nero Sicilia is lava rock/stone extracted from the slopes of Etna. The heat of a special oven designed adhoc transforms its surface, turning it into a new natural substance improved in its technical features making it exclusive and at the same time able to meet everyday modern requirements than 40 countries around the world.
